Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, [illegible]

[illegible]

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

HAIR VIGOR,

For the Renovation of the Hair.
THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

GETTYSBURG.

Description of the Second Day's Fight.

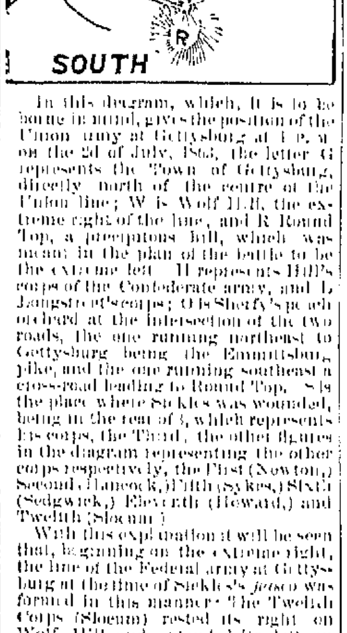
HOW SICKLES BLUNDERED.

Losses Resulting Directly and Indirectly Therefrom.

EVIDENCE from OFFICIAL REPORTS.

Diagram of that Portion of the Field on which the Fiasco occurred.

The late reunion of officers on the battle-ground of Gettysburg brings into prominence once more the part played by Sickles upon that field on the 2d of July, 1863, and in the light of the official testimony thereon, as also the later information given by the marking out of the lines on the third day of the late reunion, it is possible to present a connected view of the manner in which the present United States Minister to Spain committed that terrible blunder which, six years ago, consigned so many of his countrymen to bloody graves, and came near establishing the Southern Confederacy as a fixed fact to-day. The subjoined diagram will give a sufficiently accurate view of the position of the Federal army on the battle-field of Gettysburg on the 2d of July, 1863, and of that part of the Confederate army which swooped down upon Sickles, to render intelligible the explanations hereafter to be given:



In this diagram, which, it is to be borne in mind, gives the position of the Union army at Gettysburg at 4 P. M. on the 2d of July, 1863, the letter G represents the Town of Gettysburg, directly north of the centre of the Union line; W is Wolf Hill, the extreme right of the line, and R Round Top, a precipitous hill, which was meant in the plan of the battle to be the extreme left. H represents Hill's corps of the Confederate army, and L Longstreet's corps; O is Sherfy's peach orchard at the intersection of the two roads, the one running northeast to Gettysburg being the Emmittsburg pike, and the one running southeast a cross-road leading to Round Top. S is the place where Sickles was wounded, being in the rear of 3, which represents his corps, the Third, the other figures in the diagram representing the other corps respectively, the First (Newton,) Second (Hancock,) Fifth (Sykes,) Sixth (Sedgwick,) Eleventh (Howard,) and Twelfth (Slocum.)

With this explanation it will be seen that, beginning on the extreme right, the line of the Federal army at Gettysburg at the time of Sickles's fiasco was formed in this manner: The Twelfth Corps (Slocum) rested its right on Wolf Hill and extended its left on the semi-circle in the diagram, Culp's Hill; here the First Corps (Newton) joined its right to Slocum's left and extended around to directly in front of Gettysburg; here the right of Howard's Corps, the Eleventh, joined the left of the First, and extended its own left out along the Emmittsburg pike to a point on that road, denoted in the diagram by a sharp angle where it joined the right of Hancock's Corps, the Second, the right of the Second Corps resting on the pike, the left was due south on a ridge which forms almost a straight line from the point held by the First and Eleventh Corps on Cemetery Hill to Round Top. Now just here is where Sickles's blunder comes in. His orders were to join the right of his corps, the Third, to the left of Hancock's Corps, the Second, and follow the dotted line along the ridge almost due south to Round Top, so as to complete the Union line as it appears in the diagram, with the aid of the dotted line. Instead of so doing he marched out to the position indicated in the diagram by the black line marked 3, a position which, as even the unprofessional reader must see, not only left a huge gap in the Union line (the entire space where the dotted line is being bare of troops,) but placed Sickles himself where he had no support on either flank, and thus exposed him to a ruinous assault from the Confederate forces lying in his front. Such an assault was immediately made, Longstreet detecting the blunder and pushing out a powerful line of battle three deep, five brigades in each line. This force, curving around Sickles's left flank, as rudely shown in the diagram, compelled General Birney, who was on this flank, to form almost at right angles to the line as originally formed, in order to form a line of battle, with right resting about O, Sherfy's peach orchard, and left on Round Top. As may be supposed, this was necessary to thin a line that literally crumbled away before the terrific assaults of Longstreet's infantry and the tremendous fire of artillery poured in from the batteries which accompanied it. While this was going on, the balance of Longstreet's Corps were pushing the rest of Sickles's line back upon Hancock, until Hancock in turn became engaged, and the battle spread from below O, the peach orchard, up to where the Eleventh Corps joined the Second on the Emmittsburg pike. So furious were the Confederate assaults that even Hancock, with the advantage of being entrenched upon a ridge, while Longstreet came up the open ascent, was hard pushed to hold his own; while, as to Sickles, the crumbling process crept on from his left up, up, up, till it reached his right, and that in turn was driven back towards the dotted line, the whole corps being now in the wildest confusion. General Humphreys, who had the right of Sickles's line, and whose testimony is especially valuable as that of the officer in immediate command where the murderous blunder of the gap began, was the last of the corps to give way, but, as the Confederate line came on, testifies: "I have never been under a hotter artillery and musketry fire combined." At this time it was seen that something must be done to keep Longstreet from rushing into the gap indicated by the dotted line, Sickles's corps being broken up and retreating across this line before the tremendous advancing fire upon them. Hancock was so hotly engaged that he could spare but one brigade. The Fifth Corps was ordered up and put into the fight, but still the gray line came on; one-third of the First Corps was then brought up, but still the advance was not checked; two-thirds of the Twelfth Corps were put in, but still no check; and then the Sixth Corps became engaged, making in all five out of the seven corps in Meade's command brought into this tremendous fire through the vanity, ignorance, and self-sufficiency of Sickles.

Five corps of the Federal army being thus brought to bear on Longstreet's corps, the advance was checked, and the line from Hancock's left to Round Top formed upon the dotted line as shown in the diagram, according to the original plan of the battle, such portions of the Confederate army as had gotten in behind the dotted line being first driven out. "Although," says General Hancock in his testimony before the Committee on the Conduct of the War, "the enemy had actually gotten into our line at more than one place, yet when night came we had managed to repulse them and had driven them back, so that we held exactly the position that we started out with, which was the direct line from Cemetery Hill to Round Top. But we did not hold any of the advanced ground which was attempted to be taken." This advanced ground was that which Sickles sought to take by slinging his unfortunate command "out into the air," as it has been expressed, as shown in the diagram. The whole upshot, then, of this tremendous conflict of the second day's battle at Gettysburg, lasting from 4 P. M. till dark, between Longstreet's corps, of the Confederate, and Hancock's, Sykes's, Sedgwick's, parts of Slocum's and Newton's, and Sickles's corps, of the Federal army, was to form the Union line at last as, without one drop of bloodshed, it would have been formed at first had Sickles obeyed orders. The guilt of all the blood then poured out like water is on this man's head, and it would be well for those who lost friends or relatives in the First, Second, Third, Fifth, Sixth, and Twelfth Corps at Gettysburg, on the 2d of July, 1863, to know to whom their bereavement is due.

With this running synopsis of the Sickles blunder, it is proper to present the testimony as taken before the Committee on the Conduct of the War in the matter, and in the first place the accused is to be allowed to speak for himself. Major General Daniel E. Sickles, being sworn, testifies as to the Gettysburg operations of the second day (Report, 1865, vol. 1, pp. 297,298.)

Not having received any orders in reference to my position, and observing, from the enemy's movements on our left, what I thought to be conclusive indications of a design on their part to attack there, and that seeming to me to be our most assailable point, I went in person to headquarters and reported the facts and circumstances which led me to believe that an attack would be made there, and asked for orders. I did not receive any orders, and I found that my impression as to the intention of the enemy to attack in that direction was not concurred in at headquarters; and I was satisfied from information which I received, that it was intended to retreat from Gettysburg. I asked General Meade to go over the ground on the left and examine it. He said his engagements would not permit him to do that. I then asked him to send General Warren with me, or to go himself; but General Warren's engagements were such as to render it inconvenient for him to go. I then asked him to send General Hunt, his chief of artillery, and that was done. General Hunt accompanied me upon a reconnaissance of the whole position on the left. I directed his attention to the topography and the best line for us to occupy, and also with reference to the movement of the enemy. I pointed out to General Hunt the importance of a [illegible] point [illegible] part of the [illegible] which the Third Corps finally occupied; that is, a line from Round Top on the left, perpendicular to the Emmittsburg road? [illegible] en echelon with the line of battle established on Cemetery Hill.

What is meant here by en echelon may be seen by reference to the diagram from the way in which the Third Corps is poked out in the air, instead of being on the dotted line, which is Cemetery Ridge.

So much for Sickles; now for Meade. Major General Meade, being sworn, deposed (Ib. pp. 331, 332:)

I had sent instructions in the morning to General Sickles, commanding the Third Corps, directing him to form his corps in line of battle on the left of the Second Corps, commanded by General Hancock, and I had indicated to him in general terms that his right was to rest upon General Hancock's left, and his left was to extend to the Round Top Mountain, plainly visible, if it was practicable to occupy it. During the morning I sent a staff officer to inquire of General Sickles whether he was in position. The reply was returned to me that General Sickles said there was no position there. I then sent back to him my general instructions, which had been previously given. A short time afterwards General Sickles came to my headquarters, and I told him what my general views were, and intimated to him that he was to occupy the position that I understood General Hancock had put General Geary in, the night previous. General Sickles replied that General Geary had no position as far as he could understand. He then said to me that there was in the neighborhood of where his corps was some very good ground for artillery, and that he should like to have some staff officer of mine to go out there and see as to the posting of artillery. He also asked me whether he was not authorized to post his corps in such manner as, in his judgment, he should deem the most suitable. I answered General Sickles, "Certainly, within the general limits of the instructions I have given to you; any ground within those limits you choose to occupy I leave to you." And I directed Brigadier General Hunt, my chief of artillery, to accompany General Sickles and examine and inspect such positions as General Sickles thought good for artillery, and to give General Sickles the benefit of his judgment.

In consequence of these several messages to General Sickles, and this conversation with him, as soon as I learned that the Sixth Corps had arrived, and that the Fifth Corps was moving over to the left, I went out to the left for the purpose of inspecting General Sickles's position, and to see about the posting of the Fifth Corps. When I arrived upon the ground, which I did a few minutes before 4 o'clock in the afternoon, I found that General Sickles had taken up a position very much in advance of what it had been my intention that he should take; that he had thrown forward his right flank, instead of connecting with the left of General Hancock, something like a half or three quarters of a mile in front of General Hancock, thus leaving a large gap between his right and General Hancock's left, and that his left, instead of being near the Round Top Mountain, was in advance of the Round Top, and that his line, instead of being a prolongation of General Hancock's line, as I expected it would be, made nearly an angle of about forty-five degrees with General Hancock's line. As soon as I got upon the ground I sent for General Sickles, and asked him to indicate to me his general position. When he had done so I told him it was not the position I had expected him to take; that he had advanced his line beyond the support of my army, and that I was very fearful he would be attacked and would lose the artillery, which he had put so far in front, before I could support it, or if I undertook to support it, I would have to abandon all the rest of the line which I had adopted—that is, that I would have to fight the battle out there where he was. General Sickles expressed regret that he should have occupied a position which did not meet with my approval, and he very promptly said that he would withdraw his forces to the line that I had intended him to take. You could see the ridge by turning around which I had indicated to him and intended him to take. But I told him I was fearful that the enemy would not permit him to withdraw, and that there was no time for any further change of movement. And before I finished that remark or that sentence the enemy's batteries opened upon him and the action commenced.

Question. Before General Sickles had time to return his corps? Answer. Yes, sir; while I was speaking to him. And the subsequent events of that battle fully confirm my judgment upon this occasion. The enemy threw immense masses upon General Sickles's corps, which, advanced and isolated in this way, it was not in my power to support promptly.

The next witness is Major General Hancock (Ib., pp. 405, 406,) speaking of 2d of July, 1863:

I was placed on the line connecting Cemetery Hill with Little Round Top Mountain, my line, however, not extending to Round Top, probably half-way. General Sickles was directed to connect with my left and the Round Top Mountain, thus forming a continuous line from Cemetery Hill (which was held by General Howard) to Round Top Mountain. * * * Everything remained quiet, except artillery and engagements with pickets on our front, until about 4 o'clock that afternoon, when General Sickles moved out to the front. I happened to be present with my corps at the time. I knew that the fight was expected to commence, but the object of General Sickles moving to the front I could not conceive. I recollect looking on and admiring the spectacle, but I did not know the object of it. I saw, however, that it was going to involve a fight in front of our line, because the enemy were only a certain distance from us and parallel to us, and I thought it would be disadvantageous to us.

Major General Gibbon (Ib., pp. 440, 441) testifies of this day's work:

About 4 o'clock in the afternoon I was standing on the hill within the limits of my division, and noticed troops moving out to our left and front. It turned out to be the Third Corps, under General Sickles. They were taking up their position obliquely to our line and to the front, somewhere along the Emmittsburg road, which ran just to the front of the right of my division and obliquely to the line. I was standing there with General Hancock, and noticed the position of Sickles's line. * * * *

Question. Do you know why General Sickles took the advanced line which he did? Answer. I do not; I have no knowledge of his reasons for taking that line.

Question. Was it, or not, in your opinion, a judicious position in which to place his men? Answer. I should think it was not.

Question. Will you state the disadvantages of that advanced line? Answer. In the first place, we had our line established, and to permit Sickles was in a position which he would very naturally have support on both flanks. To put himself out in that position he would isolate his corps from the rest of the army, and necessarily weaken the position without having the same support to his wings which he would have had if he had remained in the continuous line. Then, again, I think the position he put his corps in, as it turned out, invited an attack upon his left flank, and such an attack is almost always disastrous, particularly to volunteer troops who are not thoroughly disciplined.

Major-General G. K. Warren (Ib., p. 378) testifies:

I rode out with General Meade to examine the left of our line, where General Sickles was. His troops could be hardly said to be in position. * * * *

I felt very well satisfied that General Sickles could not hold his position against the force brought against him—that his troops could not stand—and I so reported to General Meade.

Brigadier-General Hunt, Chief of Artillery, Army of the Potomac (Ib., pp. 449, 450,) testifies:

I examined the position with him (Sickles) and told him that the right of his proposed line was out where it would not be connected with the Second Corps, and that could not well be done unless a wood in our front, in which I saw no enemy, was under our control, so that the enemy could not take possession of it. * * * *

He asked me, so far as I remember, something about whether it would be proper to move forward his line, and I said, "Not that he should wait orders from General Meade;" for as far as I was concerned I had no authority in the matter.

Major General Sedgwick (Ib., p. 460,) testifies:

I arrived on the field, as I have said, about 2 o'clock. I immediately reported to General Meade's headquarters, but found that he had gone out to the position of the Third Corps, and I waited until his return a few minutes. I saw him; but I know nothing about the disposition of troops at that time. General Meade told me that he had been out to the front, that General Sickles had not taken the position he intended, but had moved out from a quarter to three quarters of a mile in advance. I asked General Meade why he had not ordered him back. He replied that it was then too late, that the enemy had opened the fight.

With this bulk of evidence, unanimous in condemnation of Sickles's course, and proving, despite his assertions to the contrary, that he did receive orders to occupy the dotted line on the diagram, we come to the testimony of Major-General Humphreys. It was this officer, whose division held the right of the Third Corps, and would, had Sickles obeyed orders, have made close connection on Cemetery Ridge with the left of Caldwell's Division, forming the extreme left of Hancock's Corps. General Humphreys testifies (Ib., p. 390) of his division: "The first brigade was in line of battle, forming the front of the line. The second brigade was formed in line of battalions, in mass, in rear of the first, and the third brigade was massed in column of regiments in rear of the centre." As will be seen, this shows not only that Sickles swung his right out, but that that right was huddled up, as it were, in a mass, instead of all being in echelon in line of battle. General Humphreys then proceeds to detail the action, stating in extenso the manner in which the Third Corps was driven in, and says: "I lost about 2,000 men killed and wounded out of something like 5,000 men!" The examination continues:

Question. Did you consider your line of that day as originally too far advanced from the main line? Answer. Yes. * * * *

Q. Supposing you had taken your position at first in the position to which you finally retired, would it not have been better? A. Undoubtedly, as the result showed.

Q. It threw your advanced line some three quarters of a mile, exposed your division to the concentrated fire of the enemy? A. Undoubtedly; they would not have broken the left before they attacked me. * * *

Q. If you were broken in pieces, was not all this space you were to occupy an open space? A. Yes, sir, that would have been a continuous line; another corps was brought up and put in that.

Such, then, is a summary of the main evidence going to convict Daniel E. Sickles of a wilful disregard of orders on the battlefield of Gettysburg, on the 2d of July, 1863, by which disregard, and the atrocious blunder following the same, the Union army became so stricken that, but for the powerful assistance to the Third Corps of four sevenths of Meade's army, and the oncoming of night, the field would have been lost, and that which is now a victory stand in history as a crushing and irreparable defeat.

From what has been quoted from the testimony of the generals above mentioned, and by an inspection of the diagram presented with this article—the accuracy of which diagram the reader will find sustained by the evidence—it can be seen how absolutely murderous was the blunder committed in placing the Third Corps so far out of reach of help. To this information the writer has some, derived from a personal inspection of this ground, to add. The dotted line in the diagram is a ridge of considerable military strength, and culminates at R, or Round Top, in an almost impregnable hill of granite. The Emmittsburg road, running diagonally in front of this line, is also on a ridge. Between the road ridge and the dotted line, or Cemetery Ridge, the ground is in the form of a valley, without cover or shelter of any kind. In this deplorable locality Sickles put his men. By the conformation of the ground it is a perfect slaughter-pen, for, by reason of the road ridge hiding the Confederate forces as they advanced, they were enabled to come up entirely unperceived, and then, on reaching the top of the crest, pour a tremendous fire on the Third Corps in the valley, and then charge down-hill with furious momentum upon them. Or, in one word, the upshot of Sickles's blunder was that he lost the top of a ridge, where he could shoot down on the Confederates, to go to the bottom of a ridge, where the Confederates could shoot down on him. That they did this with tremendous fatality the lists of killed and wounded show, and, as to those casualties, there is something to say that has heretofore never been properly known. It is this: as is well known, the battles of Gettysburg began on the 1st and terminated on the 3d of July, 1863. The Third Corps was not in the first day's fight, Sickles testifying himself (Ib., p. 297) that he reached Gettysburg "about the time that General Howard had taken possession on Cemetery Hill," which was towards the close of the first day, and when all the fighting of that day was over. On the third day's battle General Birney, who took command of the Third Corps after Sickles was wounded, testifies (Ib., p. 307:) "On the third day of July we supported the First and Second Corps, but were not seriously engaged, and met with very small loss." Now, this brings the fighting, to use a common phrase, down to a dot. The Third Corps did not fight, and consequently did not lose any men, on the first day, and on the third day its loss was "very small." It is, therefore, certain that the bloody losses it did sustain were sustained in the action of the second day, an action, as we have fully seen, precipitated, or, as General Gibbon phrases it, "invited," by the insubordination and ignorance of Daniel E. Sickles. The exact losses of the Third Corps have been studiously kept a secret, there being no reliance to be put on the cooked-up statements put forth by the government, but an idea may be formed from the statements of General Butterfield, Chief-of-Staff to General Hooker, and, after his removal, to General Meade. General Butterfield testifies (Ib., p. 428) that on the 10th of June, 1863, just three weeks to a day before the battle, the Third Corps numbered 11,898, and on the 4th of July following, two days after its engagement, was returned as aggregating but 5,676. It is proper to state that this latter return is given by General Butterfield as the one estimated by the corps commander; but that the estimate immediately after the battle should be 6,222 less than the actual return immediately before the battle is evidence of a tremendous loss. In his division alone, General Humphreys testifies: (Ib., p. 391,) "I lost, principally on the 2d of July, over 1,900 men in killed and wounded in my division of something less than 5,000 men fit for duty."

It will interest the reader, perhaps, to have a list of the regiments (infantry) of the Third Corps in this battle: They were the Third, Fourth and Seventeenth Maine; the Second and Twelfth New Hampshire; the First, Eleventh and Sixteenth Massachusetts; the Fortieth, Seventieth, Seventy-first, Seventy-second, Seventy-third, Seventy-fourth, Eighty-sixth, One Hundred and Twentieth, and One Hundred and Twenty-fourth New York; the Twenty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, Sixty-third, Sixty-eighth, Eighty-fourth, Ninety-ninth, One Hundred and Fifth, One Hundred and Tenth, One Hundred and Fourteenth, One Hundred and Fifteenth, and One Hundred and Forty-first Pennsylvania; the Fifth Michigan, and the First and Second United States Sharpshooters. Total, thirty regiments.

Remembering that the Third Corps only participated in the second day's battle, and that said battle was altogether owing to Sickles's murderous blunder, it may interest those who lost near and dear ones in the above mentioned regiments to know who was the executioner of their kindred. In the other corps there were also many killed on this day in the effort to sustain Sickles, and, as they would not have been then slain but for him, their blood is likewise at his door; but, it not being easy at this date to fix the exact regiments ordered up in such other corps to his relief, the responsibility cannot be more definitely fixed than to say that those falling on the 2d of July, 1863, in the Second, Fifth, and Sixth Corps fell victims to Sickles. The First and Twelfth Corps were also among those helping him out of Longstreet's clutches, but, as they were heavily engaged on the same day at other points how many in them owe their death to Sickles can never be known till the last day.

With his own corps it is different. All the loss it suffered was from his blunder, and how heavy it must have been the reader, if ever at Gettysburg, has only to take a walk in the "National Cemetery" to see some terrible tokens of the sad sum total. Here is the Fifth Michigan with 30 dead men at your feet; here 22 from the Second New Hampshire; here 12 of the Third Maine; here 110 of the New York Excelsior Brigade. The trophies of this man's skill lie thick, and, could one but penetrate the veil, who knows how many of the 1,608 graves here marked "unknown" would be known with a terrible certainty to contain those whose fleshless fingers would point to this lecherous assassin.—Thou art the man.

THE CALUMNIATORS OF JUDGE PACKER.

The Harrisburg Patriot says: The friends of Asa Packer have not deemed it necessary to turn aside and give indignant refutation to one half of the calumnies and libels which have been set afloat since his nomination for Governor. Most of these assertions were so utterly void of skill that they carried their own contradiction with them. There was one that he had refused to pay his taxes, when it is well known this could not be without the connivance of the assessors of the revenues, who are mostly radical partisans. The record of Asa Packer's entire life is too complete a refutation of the poor lie that he attempted to evade the payment of his debt to the government, or any other obligation. Then there was the malicious slander which originated here at Harrisburg in Governor Geary's office, that Asa Packer had subscribed the 500,000 dollars for the Lehigh University in order to enhance the value of his own land in the neighborhood of the institution. This falsehood contradicted, it was meanly asserted that Judge Packer did not really make the donation, but the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company. The Vice President of the railroad company emphatically contradicted this falsehood, and the enemies of Judge Packer were left without one first class slander that could be made available in the campaign, until the Lehigh Register recently came to the rescue of a dying cause with the following, which should be employed at once by the Commercial of Pittsburg, which has lost no time in making use of all the other falsehoods to which we have referred. The Commercial need not pay the slightest heed to the complete refutation with which the falsification is met:

"ASA PACKER AS A BENEFACTOR.—Many men risen from poverty to affluence, and possessing little or no intellect, have looked at their wealth and realized for once that there are many other things to seek for in this world besides money. Among these other things is a name, a reputation and the easiest, least laborious method of getting it is to endow a college. Asa Packer is one of this class. He endowed Lehigh University. It was purely a business investment. It increased immensely the value of the property in South Bethlehem held by him, it improved the place, it increased the business of the Lehigh Valley railroad, and besides all this, it won for him the reputation of being benevolent, and his name has been in every paper in this State and New York city as a benefactor to his race. And even now, when he accepts a nomination at the hands of rebel sympathizers, many ultimate Union Journals are kind enough to cover up his sins by awarding him the honor of being generous. Those who know him laugh at the idea of his generosity. Here is one evidence of it. A noble engineer on a passenger train on Asa Packer's road saw danger ahead. He could have jumped from the engine and saved his life, and wrecked the train. But he stuck to his post heroically, was killed, but the train was saved. His widow, who had several children, and was left destitute, applied time and again, and piteously, to Asa Packer, for aid, and finally he told her she could open a peanut stand at the Mauch Chunk depot, and he would not charge her any rent. Noble man!"

This slanderous libel, devoid of a single grain of truth, says the Carbon Democrat, was brought to the attention of the widow referred to, and she immediately sought to correct the error into which she thought the editor had been honestly led. In the fullness of her heart she wrote him a letter, calculated to disabuse the minds of his readers, of the wrong impressions formed by his article. But with contempt for truth, only equalled by his confidence in the gullibility of the readers for whom he caters, the editor refused to publish the widow's letter, preferring to let the lie stand. Failing to secure publication of the letter in the journal which first dragged her name prominently before the public, the widow furnished a copy of the same to the Allentown Democrat, from which we copy it that all may see the utter disregard for truth, and the recklessness to which our enemies are driven in circulating false charges against a man whose public record as a citizen or business man is so far above reproach, as to defy even an attempt by political opponents to find a blemish thereon:

MAUCH CHUNK, Aug. 23, 1869.
ROBERT IREDELL, JR.,

Editor Lehigh Register.—Dear Sir:—I have just come in possession of your paper of the 28th of July, 1869, in which you have an article headed "Asa Packer is a Benefactor," by which you do him great injustice. After paying a just and merited tribute of respect to my husband for sacrificing his own life to save the lives of others, you say that his widow, who had several children, and was left destitute, applied time and again, and piteously, to Asa Packer for aid, and finally he told her she could open a peanut stand at the Mauch Chunk depot, and he would not charge her any rent. Now the above reproach is utterly untrue. Judge Packer never made any such proposition, and I feel it to be my duty, as well as an act of justice, to have this made public. You say that I "applied time and again." I had but one interview with Judge Packer; his manner toward me was kind and considerate, and while speaking of the conduct of my husband at the sad accident which cost him his life, he showed much feeling, and said it was one of the noblest acts that he had ever heard of, and assured me that my family should be provided for. After the death and burial, all the funeral expenses and physician's bills were paid, my house rent was paid for one year from that time. I was supplied with wood and coal for the winter, a sewing machine was sent to my house, and a beautiful shaft monument of Italian marble, with an appropriate inscription, enclosed in a substantial railing fence, was erected to the memory of my husband. And further I have received twenty-five ($25) dollars per month, and am to receive that amount for the term of ten years from the time of his death. By giving the above an insertion in your paper, you will not only do an act of justice to Judge Packer, but will much oblige one who has good reason to hold him in the highest esteem. Please send me a copy of your paper, with the above inserted, to Box 126, Mauch Chunk, Pa., and oblige,

Very truly, MRS. JACOB MYERS.

Men who vote on age until the [illegible] according to the beautiful new law of the Radicals.

The only way to pay the Radical party for its treachery to the people is to vote against all its candidates.

The Radicals are trying to "divide and conquer." Democrats, stick to your faith and disappoint them.

Every voter who cuts a Democratic candidate will be laughed at by the Radicals after he has voted. It has been so heretofore, and will be again.

"The ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket!" Let this good old Democratic motto ring throughout the county and the State.

Every man on the Democratic ticket is opposed to negro suffrage. Every man on the Radical ticket is in favor of it. White men, which will you choose?

Every Democratic voter in the county should be brought out on the day of election, and it can only be done by our friends being awake and aroused to the importance of the result. Let us from this day forth make the campaign an active one.

Every man on the Democratic ticket is opposed to forcing negro suffrage on the people without their consent. Every man on the Radical ticket is committed to this infamy. Every Democrat or Republican, see the effect of your ballot before you deposit it in the inspector's hands.

The article describing Sickles's blunder in the battle of Gettysburg, printed on our first page, is taken from the New York World, and the diagram accompanying it is from the same office. For the use of the latter we are under obligations. The description given of this particular part of the battle is one of the best we have yet seen. Several facts new to the public are supplied by it. Of course everybody will read the article.

WAR AMONG THE RADICALS. There is great consternation in the Philadelphia Radical camp, caused by the appearance of an article in the [illegible] Telegraph assailing Governor Geary for his abuse of the pardoning power. This attack, coming from so respectable a Republican journal, has seriously damaged Geary's chances for re-election, and the more far-sighted of his party are very blue in consequence.

FELLOW Democrat, if a Radical candidate denies to you that he is in favor of negro suffrage and equality, tell him to come out of the Radical party or to come off of that ticket. He was nominated on the negro-voting platform, and if he does not endorse it, he has no business where he is. He cannot stay there and be opposed to the negro plans chalked out by the leaders of the party. Democrats, "put this at" every Radical candidate that button-holes you.

SAMUEL WOLF, the Radical candidate for Sheriff, when asked, a year ago, by a Democratic candidate, a personal friend, to vote for him, replied: "No, I can't vote against my party." Democrats, "stick a pin there." When he comes to you on the same errand, and he is spending nearly all his time importuning Democrats, give him the same answer: "No, I can't vote against your party," as he said he couldn't against ours only a twelve month back. The old Democratic White Man's party ought to be as dear to you as the negro concern was to Sam. Wolf at that time or can be now.

It has leaked out that the Radical leaders of this county have determined on a "still" campaign—not to hold meetings, or do anything calculated to excite excitement. The object of this dodge is transparent. It is to give their county candidates a better chance to operate upon and humbug Democrats. They have no other hope of success. An aroused Democracy will distance them, and they know it.

Democrats, to be forewarned is to be forearmed. Be up and doing! Teach the Radical demagogues that you are not the pliable material they take you for. Rally as one man for your ticket and your principles!

THE Radical papers are continually harping upon the popularity of negro suffrage, and advising us of the Democratic persuasion to adopt it if we would be successful. Why are they thus suddenly anxious for Democratic success? If it is so very popular, why do our Radical friends want the Democratic party to get upon the popular side. It's all gammon, gentlemen. Negro suffrage is a corpse that you are compelled to carry to your funeral, and you are only anxious to get rid of a portion of its odium, by having the Democratic party endorse it. But the trick won't win. You are welcome to all the popularity that goes with it.

"THE NIGGER QUESTION."

That's what the New York Herald calls it—"the nigger question." The bulk of the Radical journals don't want to touch it. They are afraid of the issue. About all they have to say is that "The Fifteenth Amendment is virtually adopted, and the people must swallow it; that there is no use for further discussion." But they know better. They know the question is not settled—they know the people have still a voice in the matter—and are afraid of that voice.

They know, too, that negro suffrage means negro equality—at the ballot box, in the jury box, in the cars, in the schools, in the hotels, and in the social circles. But it won't do to say so. There is an election pending, and white men alone are to vote. That's what makes most of the Radical journals now so mum—the Star among them.

The suffrage issue is not settled, and a few of its advocates are frank enough to admit it. The New York Tribune sounds an alarm that "the Fifteenth Amendment is in danger," and the New York Herald thinks the "almighty nigger" still "the leading issue." It says:

From all the signs of the day, including the results of the California election, we think it probable that the "Almighty nigger" will be the leading issue in all the approaching State elections where there is a chance to head off General Grant on the fifteenth amendment, in support of which he is fully committed.

Radical editors and orators may cry "peace, but there is no peace." They have been and are still trying to force negro suffrage upon the country without the consent of its people, and the people have found them out.

There is one effective way to punish the tyrannical demagogues. Vote against their candidates. Elect Democrats, here and everywhere, and the degrading schemes of the Radical leaders will be foiled and crushed.

WHY should Wolf, or Herbst, or Harper, or Overholtzer, or anybody else on the Radical ticket, receive the support of a solitary Democrat in the county? There is no reason for, but there are many reasons against such a course. First, these men represent the Radical platform, and that platform says NEGRO SUFFRAGE, and means in addition NEGRO EQUALITY. This degrading scheme, especially aimed at the middle and poorer classes, cannot receive the support of any Democrat. Secondly, every vote cast for a Radical candidate will, after the election, be claimed by the leaders and presses of that party as in support of their doctrine on this very negro question. Besides, has not the Radical party tyrannized, as with a rod of iron, over Democrats, for the last nine years? Has it not branded our party as "disloyal" and "traitorous?" Has it not mobbed our presses and imprisoned our people? Has it not ground us with taxes, and stolen them when collected? All these wrongs it has heaped up, and would now crown the whole by placing the balance of power in the hands of the negro. The Radical dose is too much. No Democrat can swallow it.

SOMETHING wrong in Illinois Radicaldom. Its Governor, Palmer, don't like the Fifteenth Amendment, and say so. And Hon. O. H. Browning, Secretary of the Interior under Lincoln, declares that he would rather be the Democratic than the Radical candidate for delegate to the forthcoming Illinois Constitutional Convention, and likewise that he is "opposed—decidedly, heartily, and defiantly opposed—to striking the word 'white' out of the constitution" of Illinois, and "does not hesitate to say that the fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States, if ratified, will be inconsistent with the other provisions, and with nearly all of them, to which it is an amendment, and necessarily, therefore, void as much so as if it were a proposition to set aside and abolish the Constitution of the United States." All which is decidedly significant.

BE IT REMEMBERED that Geary made indecent haste to urge the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, by which negro suffrage is to be forced upon the people of Pennsylvania against their will. Without his interference the Legislature would no doubt have suffered the question to be referred to the ballot box for an expression of popular opinion. His message committed the Republican party of the State to the infamous scheme by which the right of the people of this State to regulate the elective franchise is to be transferred to Congress. Let this reckless and faithless executive be rebuked at the coming election for his base surrender of the dearest right of the people, and of the most valuable and necessary power of the State. Let the white men of Pennsylvania administer to Geary deserved chastisement in the shape of such an overwhelming defeat as he deserves.—Lanc. Intel.

HON. ASA PACKER has done more for Pennsylvania and Pennsylvanians than a hundred Gearys would do in a hundred years. He has built railroads which bring millions of money annually into the State; he has founded and endowed Lehigh University, at a cost to himself of nearly a million of dollars, in order that the youth of the State might have greater facilities for education; and during the war he supported out of his own purse the families of hundreds of soldiers, and when his own employees who had enlisted returned home, he allowed them wages for the time they were absent the same as if they had continued at work. Is not such a man a good citizen, a true patriot, a Christian gentleman?

MERITED REBUKE.—The Ebensburg Alleghanian, Radical, published at the home of Mr. Pershing, administers the following severe, but merited, rebuke, to the Philadelphia Press and kindred Radical prints:

We observe with pain that the Philadelphia Press and a host of imitators are busily engaged day by day and week by week in the dirty work of attempting to blacken the personal and professional character of Hon. C. L. Pershing, the Democratic nominee for Supreme Judge. "County Squire," "Pershing and not Pershing," "a lawyer of no learning and no ability," "a country lout"—these are some of the epithets thrown at Mr. Pershing. We thought the day for this species of political warfare was gone. Mr. Pershing is a man of undoubted ability as a lawyer, has made a mark high upon the record as a politician, and is withal a Christian gentleman. We believe our organs will do infinitely better service for our party by attacking Mr. Pershing's political principles than Mr. Pershing as an individual.

THE Democrats of Philadelphia have a first-rate ticket in the field, and will elect it.

THE DEMOCRACY WAKING UP!

Meeting in the Court-house—Speech by Hon. B. F. Meyers.

The friends of Packer and Pershing held a meeting in the Court-house, in this place, on Saturday evening last. Though impromptu, the attendance was good, and the spirit encouraging. The meeting was called to order by H. J. Stahle, and organized as follows:

President, Abraham Krise, Esq.

Vice Presidents, George Bushman, Wm. Cownover, Adam Robert, Peter Mackley, Alfred Stonaker, Aaron Sheely, Michael Fry, Jonas Johns, Isaac Deardorff, H. A. Picking, Andrew Culp, Philip Hann.

Secretaries, R. Sheely, S. K. Foulk, Michael M. Miller, W. H. Culp, Peter Boldtz, Henry McDannell.

Wm. McClean, Esq., then introduced Hon. B. F. Myers, of the Harrisburg Patriot, who was received with applause. Mr. Meyers spoke over an hour, dealing telling blows at Radical treachery on the suffrage question, Geary's connection with the infamous acts of the Legislature, and his baseless boasts as to reductions in the State debt. The speech was an excellent one—gave universal pleasure—and at its close the meeting adjourned with three cheers for the good old cause and its candidates.

LITTLESTOWN.

Grand Rally of the Democracy—Speech by Wm. S. Stenger, Esq.

A glorious rally of the Democracy took place at Littlestown on Wednesday evening last. The turn out was large beyond all expectation, and the proceedings were characterized by a degree of enthusiasm cheering to the heart of every true friend of a white man's government.

A special train was run from this place, with a handsome delegation, which was swelled at different points along the route. The Democratic martial music of Gettysburg accompanied the party. The Littlestown Brass Band was also out on the occasion—both performing admirably.

The meeting was organized by the selection of the following officers:

President, Simon S. Bishop, Esq.

Vice Presidents, Joseph L. Shorb, Daniel Geiselman, Moses Hartman, Amos Lefever, Samuel J. Shorb, Wm. Rider, George Hesson, Wm. Dutera, John G. Brinkerhoff, Christian Rahter, Martin Steffy, H. D. Wattles, Adam Robert, Samuel Wolf, George Geyer, Philip Hender, George W. Stover, Christian Reck, John Buddy, Levi Murrin, John Bolen, Wm. Slifer.

Secretaries, Dr. E. F. Shorb, Henry Rahter, Martin E. Bollinger, Dr. Hiram W. Lefever, G. W. Welsh, Jesse Bollinger.

Wm. S. Stenger, Esq., of Chambersburg, was then introduced, and received with enthusiastic cheers. Though expectation ran high, the speaker more than realized it. For nearly an hour and a half he held the vast audience as though spell bound. Arguments more clear and powerful we never heard fall from his eloquent lips. He riddled the Suffrage Amendment, and demolished every prop set up for Geary.

Wm. McClean, Esq., followed with fitting allusions to the county candidates, when the meeting adjourned with hearty cheers for the cause and the ticket.

IT was said by a Radical politician, the other day, that his party intended to "fight on the sly" in this county this fall. With the Radical game thus exposed, we exhort our Democratic friends in all the districts TO GO TO WORK. Attend to the registry—talk to your neighbors—stir up interest in the canvass—AND BRING OUT EVERY VOTE! Let the sneaks be well thrashed!

HOW THEY DO LIE.—The Radicals are utterly unable to bring a single truthful accusation against Asa Packer. His life has been so pure, and his character and talents place him so completely beyond the reach of calumny that the more respectable Republican newspapers of the State praise him. A few scalawag journals, which rely solely upon the defamation of political opponents, are forced to resort to the most barefaced lies. The latest we have noticed is a report that the Lehigh Railroad founded that magnificent public charity, the Lehigh University. The President of the road published a card some days since, denying that the company ever contributed a dollar for any such purpose. Yet such sheets as the Harrisburg Telegraph are still harping upon the lie. When a party is reduced to such disgraceful shifts it has sunk very low indeed.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

GEARY AND COVODE are importing into Pennsylvania such Jacobin orators as Morton, of Indiana, and Bingham, of Ohio, to enlighten the people of the Commonwealth in regard to their duties at the coming election. These men contemptuously tell Pennsylvanians that they might as well make up their minds that the negro will vote in our State in 1870. Hadn't they better stay at home and mind their own business? It will not be forgotten that the unscrupulous demagogue, Morton, has given an opinion that the disrupted Indiana legislature, dissolved into a mere mob, legally ratified the Fifteenth Amendment. He will have enough to do to prevent the people of his own State from repudiating the fraud to which he lends his name, without coming here to bolster up the iniquity of the late legislature of Pennsylvania. Let this prairie wolf go back to his burrow.—Patriot.

THE New York Nation, a Radical newspaper, predicts that Geary will be disastrously defeated at the coming election. It reaches that sensible conclusion after a full review of the present political situation. That the prediction of the Nation will be abundantly verified we have no doubt. All the Democracy have to do to insure the election of Packer and Pershing by an overwhelming majority, is to get out their full vote. Let that be kept steadily in mind and all will be well.

"DURING the war Asa Packer packed his trunks and went to Europe, where he stayed two whole years consorting with rebels."—Forney's Press.

Judge Packer did not go to Europe until the summer of 1865, and yet this bare-faced falsehood, first appearing in the Press, has found a place in perhaps every Radical sheet in the State. If anything were wanting to prove the desperation of the Gearyites, and the utter hopelessness of their cause in the present contest, it is furnished in contemptible efforts at deception such as these.—Patriot.

THE New York Tribune says, "No doubt there will always be a party called Democratic, which will hold conventions, and nominate tickets, and sometimes elect them." You may bet on that, Mr. Greeley.

BE SURE to register ten days before the election.

Local Department.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING SCENES.

Clover-seed.—James F. Rider, of Mountjoy township, recently threshed 40½ bushels of clover-seed from 14 acres. Good crop.

Fine Yield.—Mr. Jacob B. Miller, of Huntington township, the past season, raised 61 bushels of Ramsdel Norway oats from 14 pounds of seed.

Present.—Mr. Abraham Plank, of Cumberland township, has placed us under obligations for a basket of splendid peaches. He has many thanks.

"Monster."—One of the "big apples" so often talked about is before us. Mr. Jeremiah Bishop, of Cumberland township, has presented us with a "Monster Redstreak" measuring 14 inches in circumference and weighing one pound and two ounces! Who can beat it?

Race.—A race took place near Weigelstown, York county, on Thursday last, between Dr. Tate's "Cashier" and a mare owned by Mr. Dull—$50 a side—distance 600 yards—"best two in three." "Cashier" came off victorious, winning two heats—as well as a third, but which was not counted because the riders failed to return (to the start) when called back, alleging that they did not hear the call. The running was close, we understand.

Barn Burnt.—During the storm on Friday last, the barn on Jeptha Dubs's farm, (formerly Sell's,) on the Millerstown road, in Highland township, was struck by lightning, and consumed, with nearly all the year's crop of grain, a large quantity of hay, a new buggy, threshing machine and other farming implements, and a calf. It is said that there was some insurance on the building, but how much, or in what company, we have not heard. The farm is in the occupancy of Frederick Dubs, whose loss in personal property must be heavy.

Synod.—The West Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church, embracing Adams, York, Cumberland and Franklin counties, met in St. James's church, this place, on Wednesday evening. The synodical sermon was preached by Rev. A. W. Lilly.

Yesterday morning, Rev. A. W. Lilly, of York, was elected President, Rev. E. Breidenbaugh, of Gettysburg, Secretary, and Rev. W. M. Baum, of York, Treasurer. The meeting is likely to continue until Tuesday next.

Accident.—A severe accident occurred at the Sunday School Celebration near Wierman's mill on Saturday last. As Mr. Border and wife were leaving the ground, in company with others, a wheel of their buggy struck a tree, breaking the shafts, and precipitating Mr. and Mrs. Border violently to the ground. Mrs. B. was removed to a house near by in an unconscious state. Dr. Eckenrode was called in, and after administering the usual remedies, consciousness was restored. Her head and left arm were severely contused. The injuries, though rather severe, are not considered dangerous, and at last accounts the sufferer was doing well. Mr. B. escaped uninjured.

Property Sales.—Samuel March, Esq., as Executor, sold the house and lot belonging to the estate of John Lynch, deceased, in New Chester, on Saturday last, to George F. Miller, at $1,450.

John S. Martin, Executor of John Martin, deceased, sold the mansion farm of said decedent, in Latimore township, on the 2d instant, to Wm. Leer—70 acres, at $71 per acre.

Samuel Lilly, Esq., has disposed of his farm.

Nicholas Weaver has bought a lot of ground on Washington street from David Bluebaugh. It is the Dr.'s intention to build a two-story brick house thereon.

Agricultural Fairs.—The Adams County Fair will be held next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, at Gettysburg.

Carroll County next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, at Westminster.

Cumberland County on the 13th, 14th and 15th of October, at Carlisle.

Franklin County on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of October, at Chambersburg.

Frederick County on the 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th of October, at Frederick.

York County on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of October, at York.

State Fair on the 27th, 28th and 29th of September, and 1st of October, at Harrisburg.

The Game Laws.—The following are the game laws in force in Pennsylvania, says an exchange:

Deer can only be killed or taken from the 1st of September to the 31st of December.

Grouse or pheasants can only be shot from the 1st of August to the 20th of December.

Partridges can only be killed from the 1st of October to the 20th of December.

Wild turkeys can be hunted from the 1st of October to the 1st of January.

Squirrels and rabbits may be shot from the 1st of August to the 1st of January.

Woodcock from the 4th of July to the 15th of November.

Insectivorous birds, which include the robins, are prohibited to be shot at any time, and it is illegal to rob the nests of birds of any kind.

Trout can be fished for with hook and line only, during the months of April, May, June and July.

Sunday shooting or hunting is prohibited by law under a heavy penalty.

Traps, blinds, snares, &c., are entirely prohibited.

Possession of fish or any other game out of season, is sufficient to convict the party, even if they were purchased.

The penalties vary from $5 to $50.

One-half the fine goes to the informer, and any one convicted and refusing to pay the fine goes to jail for ten days.

Horse Drowned.—A horse, worth several hundred dollars, belonging to Mr. John Speak, of Creagerstown district, fell into a well twenty-five feet deep and was drowned. The animal was feeding near the well, and being annoyed by flies, struck his head around at them, when the reins caught in the hames, which caused him to back until he reached the well—around which was a slight frame that gave way—into which he fell. By the use of strong ropes the dead animal was afterwards taken out.—Frederick Citizen.

Farmers, This Way.—Bigham & Co. are the agents for the Champion and the Buckeye Reapers and Mowers, the best machines now in use. Farmers wishing to get a good machine and one that will give entire satisfaction, should not fail to call on Bigham & Co., at their Warehouse, on North Washington street, Gettysburg, Pa. Come one, come all, and see the world renowned machines. tf

The Agricultural Fair.—The Seventh Annual Exhibition of the Adams County Agricultural Society will be held on the Fair Grounds in this place, next week, to open on Tuesday morning and close on Thursday evening. Animals and articles will be received on Monday, and it is hoped that as many as possibly can will enter what they have to exhibit on that day. Entries may still be made on Tuesday forenoon, but to avoid hurry and consequent confusion it would be better for all concerned to have this part of the work done on Monday.

The grounds are in first-rate order. The track is smooth as a floor, whilst the buildings, stalls, &c., have all been looked to, and gotten into proper trim. There is plenty of hay and straw on hand, for use without charge, whilst oats and corn will be supplied at ordinary rates. The water is abundant and good.

Every attention will be paid exhibitors by the Marshals and the officers of the Society, and nothing will be left undone by them to render the Fair satisfactory, and make it a success, in every sense. John F. Felty, Esq., of Straban, will be Chief Marshal, and Messrs. James Hersh, of New Oxford, and Charles J. Sefton, of Fairfield, Assistant Marshals. A sufficient police force has been secured, that the best of order may be had, from the beginning to the close.

That the Fair will be attractive—unusually so—can be safely promised. The premium list has been enlarged, and several new features will be witnessed—as, for instance, a trial of horse strength, velocipede race, and so on. Of course there will be trials of speed every day, and the track may be expected to be lively all the time—and then such a track is not often to be seen, being a full half mile in length, and level and smooth beyond any other in this region, if not in the State.

It becomes the whole people of the county not only to accord the Fair the benefit of their presence, but also to bring in for exhibition everything calculated to give a fair idea of our already vast, and still growing, agricultural resources. Let county pride stir up all who possibly can to become exhibitors.

Lastly, let everybody come—young and old—male and female—everybody! They will not regret it. With anything like good weather, a successful Fair and a pleasant time may confidently be expected.

Potatoes.—Mr. Solomon Orner, of Butler township, presented us the other day with a lot of potatoes of the "Purple Mercer" variety, the seed of which he received from Minnesota last Spring. The potatoes are of fine size, dark in the skin but white in the flesh, and of excellent flavor. Mr. Orner realized upwards of twenty bushels from half a bushel planted. We are inclined to the belief that the "Purple Mercer" will become popular in this region, as it is in the West.

Look Out for Cold Weather.—We would advise our friends who are not well supplied with Blankets, Flannels, Shawls, &c., to purchase at once of F. D. Duphorn. A large stock just received from the mills. Selling low. Store northwest corner Square. tf

Always Ahead.—Mr. Frank Cunningham, who is always up to the times and who studies to fill the wants of the public, has just returned from the cities with a large assortment of Fall and Winter Clothing, of the latest styles and the best manufacture. Any person in want of a good suit of clothes will find at Mr. Cunningham's the style and kind of goods he may wish. In his extensive stock of goods will also be found a large assortment of Boy's and Children's Clothing, made up in the latest styles. See advertisement. 3t

Something New.—To those who like to see anything tasty or stylish in the Cassimere line, we would recommend the latest style Diagonals or Plaids, which we saw at F. D. Duphorn's. A large new stock just received, and selling cheap. Store northwest corner Square. tf

Smut Machines.—Mr. John L. Brenizer, of Hampton, will have on exhibition at the Fair, next week, one of the celebrated Russell Double-suction Smut Machines, manufactured by Gilbert & Co., of Chambersburg. This is said to be the best combined wheat separator and scourer in the world, and every miller in the county should examine it. Mr. Brenizer is agent for Adams county, and will cheerfully give all information. He will also have samples of work done on the Machine. 1t

Any Lady can procure a Hoop Skirt for forty cents. Who will not wear them when they can be bought at this unprecedentedly low price? To be had at the store of F. D. Duphorn, northwest corner Square. tf

Lumber.—The attention of Carpenters and Builders is invited to the extensive assortment at the Lumber Yard of Col. C. H. Buehler, on Carlisle st., opposite the Passenger Depot. River and Mountain Pine, Hemlock, Laths, Siding, Joists, Scantling, Shingles, Pickets, Flooring, Posts, &c. &c., furnished in any quantity and at lowest rates. tf

Great Surprise.—In passing Arnold's Old Corner, the other day, we were surprised at the change. Norris has "changed his base" to this corner, and is surprising everybody that visits him by his large and cheap lot of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes. Give him a call. tf

Just Received, a large lot of very choicest Factory Cheese, offered at quite reduced prices, wholesale and retail. Also a large stock of New Mackerel at lowest market prices.

WM. BLAIR & SON.

Sept. 17, 1869. tf

P. S.—Salt, Coal Oil, &c., on hand at all times at quite low prices, wholesale and retail.

Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters."—There is no Charlatanism about Speer's "Wine Bitters." Their base is his pure wine, all of which is four years old, before it is sold or used in any way. They only require to be used to recommend themselves to the most incredulous. They are pure and perfectly free from any kind of medication, and pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists. 1t

Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions or humors appearing upon the face are removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Alterative Extract, or Golden Medical Discovery. For Weak Back, Female Weakness, or Irregularities, nothing equals it. Sold by druggists, or send three and a quarter dollars to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for three bottles free of Express charges. 1t

If you would enjoy good health, read the Circular of Seward, Bently & Cheney, and then procure a bottle of their justly celebrated Constitution Bitters, and take them according to directions, and you need not be longer complaining. 1t

CAUTION.

Extended success in any department of business justly awakens competition, and owing to defective mental and moral structure, often begets envy. Now these are to be expected and may be met by energy and determination; but not unfrequently the bounds of legitimate rivalries are overstepped and base, unscrupulous men stoop to use the patronage of others to further their nefarious purposes. With the assistance of science, and by means of industry and honesty, in providing a potent remedy, Dr. Stoever's Old Standard Tonic Herb Bitters have attained unparalleled celebrity, having been before the public for the last thirty years.

Where ever they have entered the sick or complaining household, their effects have even exceeded expectation, and so far surpassed all we have claimed for them by circular, card, or otherwise, that the public confidence in the medicinal qualities of the Bitters is unbounded. We do not fear the competition of the empirical throng who attempt to palm off remedies upon the people, which are not scientifically compounded, and are destitute of available qualities. Their empiricism will be discovered in the end, and the inefficiency of their preparations found out. We would rather be envied for merited success than despised for failure, however ungenerous it may be for man either to envy or despise. Against another and a worse class of individuals, we are forced to take action. We allude to those who take advantage of our popularity, and attempt to gain public favor and confidence by counterfeiting the Old Standard Bitters, barely imitating the label, or making other approaches to its preparation calculated to deceive, and as a matter of course, in so far as they succeed, to bring our excellent Tonic into disrepute. The public are hereby warned against such imitations. In order to further protect ourselves, and save the afflicted from imposition, we have concluded to change our label so as ever hereafter to sustain our indentity, and keep the reputation of the Old Standard intact. We incur great expense by so doing, but the end warrants the means. The new label along with the caption, directions and neat ornamentation will present an excellent steel portrait of C. H. Krider, the senior member of the firm. This will be the badge of its genuineness, as well as a guarantee of the quality of the Bitters. The label will be duly copyrighted, and thus placed beyond the reach of counterfeiters. By no fault of ours shall the public confidence ever be abused or the reputation of the "Old Standard" be allowed to suffer. None genuine unless signed

Mark Twain.—We hope our readers will purchase one new book just as soon as the Agent for this place shall put in an appearance. We refer to Mark Twain's new book entitled "New Pilgrim's Progress." We read the proof-sheets, and we have just completed the published book, and sometime hence we expect to read it again.

Mark Twain, always interesting, in this book has outrivaled himself. It is instructive, humorous, racy, full of quaint expressions that make you laugh unexpectedly, and before you are quite ready; critical, sometimes caustic, but always good natured; never prosy or wearisome. You begin the book and do not want to leave it till the last line is reached. Mark never describes a place, or sees a sight as others do. He is intensely original; and for us there is where the charm lies.

It is a work permanently adapted for home reading aloud, and will invariably call up around the fireside a spirit of mirth and congeniality. No one can read its pages without feeling there is still beauty and sunshine in the world.

If there is not an immense sale for this book we shall be greatly disappointed. Published by that enterprising house, the American Publishing Company, Hartford, Conn.

"Having earned my bread by the labor of my hands during many, and I may add, the happiest years of my life, and owing whatever I possess (under the Providence of God) to patient and honest toil, I can never be unmindful of the interests of those with whom my entire life has been associated."—ASA PACKER.

HON. J. A. ROYCE, of Cincinnati, heretofore a prominent Radical, in a communication to the Cincinnati Enquirer, says: "I have severed myself from the Republican party, because it is an organized hypocrisy, a shuffling dissimulation, a fraud, a delusion, and a snare, a combination of grasping fanatics, fattening on the vitals of wealth-distributors of the country." It is evident that Mr. Royce, during his connection with the Radical party, kept his eyes about him.

UNDER Radical rule in Missouri, there are sixty thousand white men, guilty of no crime known to law, not even charged with an indictable offence, who cannot vote for the lowest officer in the State, and all this four and a half years after the close of the civil war, while the ballot has been given in the Southern States to 700,000 negroes, most of them grossly ignorant, and unable to read or write! Such is Radicalism! Voter, can you support it longer?

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Comfort and Bliss, or Pain and Agony.

Dr. TOBIAS' CELEBRATED VENITIAN LINIMENT, whose wonderful cures, sure and instantaneous action, in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, Headache, Toothache, Croup, Cuts, Burns, Colic, Cramps, Dysentery, etc., have astonished the civilized world, is no new catchpenny; but an article that has stood the test of twenty-two years. The enormous sale and rapidly increasing demand is at once the surest evidence of its usefulness and popularity. No family should be without a bottle in the house. Hundreds of dollars and many hours of suffering may be saved by its timely use.

Colic, Cramp, and Dysentery yield at once to its pain-curative properties. It is perfectly innocent, and can be given to the oldest person or youngest child. No matter if you have no confidence in Patent Medicines—try this, and you will be sure to buy again, and recommend it to their practice.

In Remote Settlements of Untold Value.

Food makes blood; blood makes the body. If the blood be pure, the body is healthy. So if we are not in health, we know some impurities are lurking about which must be removed, and the sooner the better.

Brandreth's Pills remove all from the system which nature needs no longer.

The wonderful cures effected by Brandreth's Pills have arrested the attention of enlightened physicians. Upwards of five thousand now use them in their daily practice, and two hundred have given their written testimony as to their innocence and value, as cleansers of the bowels and blood.

Their untold value is to those living in settlements where doctors can only be had at great expense. For if you are sick, you have only to take one or more doses of Brandreth's Pills to get cured. Full directions are with each box.

By an Act of the General Assembly of this State, it is enjoined upon me to insert in my proclamation of elections the following sections of laws passed by said General Assembly, as follows:

(Act of March 30, 1866.)

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby, hereafter, authorized and required to vote, by tickets, printed, or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and to be labelled, outside, "judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all state officers voted for, and be labelled, "state;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, and be labelled "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers to be voted for and be labelled "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.

(Act of June 4, 1866.)

WHEREAS, By the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "An Act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out the National forces, and for other purposes," and approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged, or relieved from the penalty, or disability therein provided, are deemed, and taken, to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited, their rights of citizenship, and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof;

AND WHEREAS, Persons, not citizens of the United States, are not, under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania, qualified electors of this commonwealth:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person or persons, embraced in the provisions, and subject to the disability, imposed by said act of Congress, approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot, or ballots.

SECTION 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them, shall receive or consent to receive, any such unlawful ballot or ballots, from any such disqualified person, he, or they, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, he shall, for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment, in the jail of the proper county, for not less than sixty days.

SECTION 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election, hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall, for each offence, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act, in the case of officers of election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

SECTION 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade, or advise, any person, or persons, deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot, or ballots, to the officers of any election, hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person, so offending, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act, in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot, or ballots.

By the 10th section of the Registry Law, approved the 17th day of April, A. D., 1869, it is directed that "At all the elections hereafter held under the laws of this Commonwealth the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock, A. M., and close at 7 o'clock, P. M."

Also—That in and by virtue of the 14th section of the act of February 27th, 1839, every person excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of Congress and of the State legislature, and of the Select or Common Council of any City or Commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Judge, Inspector, or other officer of any such election, shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for.

Also—That in the fourth section of the Act of Assembly entitled "An Act relating to executions, and for other purposes," approved April 16th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 14th section "shall not be construed, as to prevent any militia officer or borough officer, from serving as Judge, inspector or clerk, at any general or special election in this Commonwealth."

And be it further directed, in and by the Act of the General Assembly of this State, aforesaid, that one of the Judges of each of the different districts as aforesaid, who shall have the charge of the certificates of the number of votes which shall have been given for each candidate for the different offices then and there voted for at their respective districts, shall meet the third day after the election, which shall be on FRIDAY, THE 15TH DAY OF OCTOBER aforesaid, at the Court House, in the Borough of Gettysburg, then and there to make a fair statement and certificate of the number of votes which shall have been given at the different districts in the county of Adams for any persons for the offices aforesaid.

REGISTRY LAW.

I also give official notice to the electors of Adams county that, by an act entitled "An Act further supplemental to the act relative to the elections of this Commonwealth," approved April 17th, A. D., 1869, it is provided as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of each of the assessors within this Commonwealth, on the first Monday in June of each year, to take up the transcript he has received from the county commissioners under the eighth section of the act of fifteenth April, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, and proceed to an immediate revision of the same, by striking therefrom the name of every person who is known by him to have died or removed since the last previous assessment from the district of which he is the assessor, or whose death or removal from the same shall be made known to him, and to add to the same the name of any qualified voter who shall be known by him to have moved into the district since the last previous assessment, or whose removal into the same shall have been made known to him, and also the names of all who shall make claim to him to be qualified voters therein. As soon as the revision is completed he shall visit every dwelling house in his district and make careful inquiry if any person whose name is on his list has died or removed from the district and if so, to take the same therefrom, or whether any qualified voter resides therein whose name is not on his list, and if so to add the same thereto; and in all cases where a name is added to the list a tax shall forthwith be assessed against the person; and the assessor shall in all cases ascertain by inquiry, upon what ground the person so assessed claims to be a voter. Upon the completion of the work, it shall be the duty of each assessor as aforesaid to proceed to make out a list, in alphabetical order, of the white freemen above twenty-one years of age, claiming to be qualified voters in the ward, borough, township or district of which he is the assessor, and opposite each of said names state whether said freeman is or is not a housekeeper; and if he is, the number of his residence, in towns where the same are numbered, with the street, alley or court in which situated; and if in a town where there are no numbers, the name of the street, alley or court on which said house fronts; also, the occupation of the person, and where he is not a housekeeper, the occupation, place of boarding and with whom, and if working for another, the name of the employer, and write opposite each of said names the word "voter;" where any person claims to vote by reason of naturalization, he shall exhibit his certificate thereof to the assessor, unless he has been for five consecutive years next preceding a voter in said district; and in all cases where the person has been naturalized, the name shall be marked with the letter "N;" where the person has merely declared his intentions to become a citizen and designs to be naturalized before the next election, the name shall be marked "D. I.;" where the claim is to vote by reason of being between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, as provided by law, the word "age" shall be entered; and if a person has moved into the election district to reside since the last general election, the letter "R" shall be placed opposite the name. It shall be the further duty of each assessor as aforesaid, upon the completion of the duties herein imposed, to make out a separate list of all new assessments made by him, and the amount assessed upon each, and furnish the same immediately to the county commissioners who shall immediately add the names to the tax duplicate of the ward, borough, township or district in which they have been assessed.

SECTION 2. On the list being completed and the assessments made as aforesaid, the same shall forthwith be returned to the county commissioners, who shall cause duplicate copies of said lists, with the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid, to be made out as soon as practicable and placed in the hands of the assessor, who shall prior to the first of August in each year, put one copy thereof on the door of or on the house where the election of the respective district is required to be held, and retain the other in his possession, for the inspection, free of charge, of any person resident in the said election district who shall desire to see the same; and it shall be the duty of the said assessor to add from time to time, on the personal application of any one claiming the right to vote, the name of such applicant, and mark opposite each name "C. V." and immediately assess him with a tax, noting as in all other cases, his occupation, residence, whether a boarder or housekeeper; if a boarder, with whom he boards; and whether naturalized or designed to be, marking in all such cases opposite the name, "N." or "D. I.," as the case may be; if the person claiming to be assessed be naturalized, he shall exhibit to the assessor his certificate of naturalization; and if he claims that he designs to be naturalized before the next ensuing election, he shall exhibit the certificate of his declaration of intention; in all cases where any ward, borough, township or election district is divided into two or more precincts, the assessor shall note in all his assessments the election precinct in which each elector resides, and shall make a separate return for each to the county commissioners, in all cases in which a return is required from him by the provisions of this act; and the county commissioners, in making duplicate copies of all such returns shall make duplicate copies of the names of the voters in each precinct, separately, and shall furnish the same to the assessor; and the copies required by this act to be placed on the doors of or on election places on or before the first of August in each year, shall be placed on the door or on the election place in each of said precincts.

SEC. 3. After the assessments [illegible] been completed on the tenth day preceding the second Tuesday in October [illegible] year, the assessor shall, on the Monday immediately following make a return to the county commissioners of the names of all persons assessed by him since the return [illegible] required to be made by him by the second [illegible] of this act, noting opposite each name the observations and explanations required to be noted as aforesaid; and the county commissioners shall thereupon cause the same to be added to the return required by the second section of this act, and a full [illegible] copy thereof to be made, containing the names of all persons returned as resident taxables in said ward, borough, township or precinct, and furnish the same, together with the necessary election blanks to the officers of the election in said ward, borough, township or precinct, on or before six o'clock in the morning of the second Tuesday of October; and no man shall be permitted to vote at the election on that day whose name is not on said list, unless he shall make proof of his right to vote, as hereinafter required.

SECTION 4. On the day of election any person whose name is not on the said list, and claiming the right to vote at said election, shall produce at least one qualified voter of the district as a witness to the residence of the claimant in the district in which he claims to be a voter for the period of at least ten days next preceding said election, which witness shall take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit to the fact stated by him, which affidavit shall define clearly where the residence is of the person so claiming to be a voter; and the person so claiming the right to vote shall also take and subscribe a written, or partly written and partly printed affidavit, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief, where and when he was born; that he is a citizen of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and of the United States; that he has resided in the Commonwealth one year, or if formerly a citizen therein, and has moved therefrom, that he has resided therein six months next preceding said election; that he has not moved into the district for the purpose of voting therein; that he has paid a State or county tax within two years, which was assessed at least ten days before said election; and, if a naturalized citizen, shall also state when, where and by what court he was naturalized, and shall also produce his certificate of naturalization for examination; the said affidavit shall also state when and where the tax claimed to be paid by the affiant was assessed, and when, where and to whom paid, and the tax receipt therefor shall be produced for examination, unless the affiant shall state in his affidavit that it has been lost or destroyed, or that he never received any, but if the person so claiming the right to vote shall take and subscribe an affidavit that he is a native born citizen of the United States, or if born elsewhere, shall state the fact in his affidavit, and shall produce evidence that he has been naturalized, or that he is entitled to citizenship by reason of his father's naturalization; and shall further state in his affidavit that he is, at the time of taking the affidavit, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years; that he has resided in the State one year and in the election district ten days next preceding such election, he shall be entitled to vote, although he shall not have paid taxes. The said affidavits of all persons making such claims and the affidavits of the witnesses to their residence, shall be preserved by the election board, and at the close of the election they shall be enclosed with the list of voters, tally list and other papers required by law to be filed by the return judge with the prothonotary, and shall remain on file therewith in the prothonotary's office, subject to examination, as other election papers are; if the election officers shall find that the applicant or applicants possess all the legal qualifications of voters, he or they shall be permitted to vote, and the name or names shall be added to the list of taxables by the election officers, the word "tax" being added where the claimant claims to vote on tax, and the word "age" where he claims to vote on age, the same words being added by the clerks in each case respectively on the lists of persons voting at such election.

SECTION 5. It shall be lawful for any qualified citizen of the district, notwithstanding the name of the proposed voter is contained on the list of resident taxables, to challenge the vote of such person; whereupon the same proof of the right of suffrage as is now required by law shall be publicly made and acted on by the election board, and the vote admitted or rejected, according to the evidence; every person claiming to be a naturalized citizen shall be required to produce his naturalization certificate at the election before voting, except where he has been for ten years, consecutively, a voter in the district in which he offers his vote; and on the vote of such person being received, it shall be the duty of the election officers to write or stamp on such certificate the word "voted," with the month and year, and if any election officer or officers shall receive a second vote on the same day, by virtue of the same certificate, excepting where sons are entitled to vote by virtue of the naturalization of their fathers, they and the person who shall offer such second vote, upon so offending shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the court; but the fine shall not exceed one hundred dollars in each case, nor the imprisonment one year; the like punishment shall be inflicted, on conviction, on the officers of election who shall neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made, the indorsement required, as aforesaid, on said naturalization certificate.

SEC. 6. If any election officer shall refuse or neglect to require such proof of the right of suffrage as is prescribed by this law, or the laws to which this is a supplement, from any person offering to vote whose name is not on the list of assessed voters, or whose right to vote is challenged by any qualified voter present, and shall admit such person to vote without requiring such proof, every person so offending shall upon conviction, be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be sentenced, for every such offence, to pay a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to undergo an imprisonment not more than one year, or either or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 7. Ten days preceding every election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, it shall be the duty of the assessor to attend at the place fixed by law for holding the election in each election district, and then and there hear all applications of persons whose names have been omitted from the list of assessed voters, and who claim the right to vote or whose rights have originated since the same was made out, and shall add the names of such persons thereto as shall show that they are entitled to the right of suffrage in such district, on the personal application of the claimant only, and forthwith assess him with the proper tax. After completing the list, a copy thereof shall be placed on the door of or on the house where the election is to be held, at least eight days before the election; and at the election the same course shall be pursued, in all respects, as is required by this act and the acts to which it is a supplement, at the general election in October. The assessor shall also make the same returns to the county commissioners of all assessments made by virtue of this section; and the county commissioners shall furnish copies thereof to the election officers in each district, in like manner in all respects as is required at the general election in October.

SEC. 8. The same rules and regulations shall apply at every special election and at every separate city, borough or ward election, in all respects as at the general election in October.

SEC. 9. The respective assessors, inspectors and judges of the elections shall each have the power to administer oaths to any person claiming the right to be assessed or the right of suffrage, or in regard to any other matter or thing required to be done or inquired into by any of said officers under this act; and any wilful false swearing by any person in relation to any matter or thing concerning which they shall be lawfully interrogated by any of said officers, shall be punished as perjury.

SEC. 10. The assessors shall each receive the same compensation for the time necessarily spent in performing the duties hereby enjoined as is provided by law for the performance of their other duties, to be paid by the county commissioners as in other cases; and it shall not be lawful for any assessor to assess a tax against any person whatever within ten days next preceding the election to be held on the second Tuesday of October in any year, or within ten days next before any election for electors of President and Vice President of the United States; any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor, and subject the officers so offending to a fine, on conviction, not exceeding one hundred dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 11. On the petition of five or more citizens of the county stating under oath that they verily believe that frauds will be perpetrated at the election about to be held, in any district, it shall be the duty of the court of common pleas of said county, if in session, or if not, a judge thereof in vacation, to appoint two judicious, sober and intelligent citizens of the county, to act as overseers at said election; said overseers shall be selected from different political parties, where the inspectors belong to the different parties, and where both of said inspectors belong to the same political party, both of the overseers shall be taken from the opposite political party; said overseers shall have the right to be present with the officers of the election during the whole time the same is held, the votes counted, and the returns made out and signed by the election officers; to keep a list of voters, if they see proper; to challenge any person offering to vote, and interrogate him and his witnesses, under oath, in regard to his right of suffrage at said election, and to examine his papers produced; and the officers of said election are required to afford to said overseers so selected and appointed every convenience and facility for the discharge of their duties; and if said election officers shall refuse to permit said overseers to be present and perform their duties as aforesaid, or if they shall be driven away from the polls by violence or intimidation, all the votes polled at such election district may be rejected by any tribunal trying any contest under said election; Provided,—That no person signing the petition shall be appointed an overseer.

SEC. 15. All elections for the city, ward, borough, township and election officers shall hereafter be held on the second Tuesday of October, subject to all the provisions of the laws regulating the election of such officers not inconsistent with this act; the persons elected to such offices at that time shall take their places at the expiration of the terms of the persons holding the same at the time of such election, but no election for the office of assessor or assistant assessor shall be held under this act until the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

SEC. 16. At all elections hereafter held, under the laws of this Commonwealth, the polls shall be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock A. M., and closed at seven o'clock P. M.

PHILIP HANN, Sheriff.

Sheriff's Office, Gettysburg, Sept. 17, 1869.

* Election officers will take notice that the act entitled "A Further Supplement to the Election Laws of this Commonwealth," disqualifying deserters from the army of the United States from voting, has recently been declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, except so far as it disqualifies from voting persons duly tried and convicted of desertion, and is now null and void with said exception, and that all persons formerly disqualified thereunder with the exception named, are now lawful voters, if otherwise qualified.

Head-Quarters Removed.—Captain Norris has removed his store to Arnold's Corner, next door to the First National Bank, where you will find one of the best and cheapest stocks of Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, of every description, in the county. He is selling Winter Clothing at greatly reduced prices, to make room for Spring Goods. If you want a bargain, go to Norris' Corner. All kinds of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, on hand, and as cheap as before the war. Give him a call. tf

Indian Stone Arrow Heads, Battle Axes, and War Clubs Wanted.—Persons bringing to the Katalysine Spring or Hotel any of the above named or other Indian relics found on the Battlefield will be rewarded for their trouble. tf

New Cooking Stove.—The attention of Housekeepers is invited to the EXCELSIOR PENN COOK STOVE, which has recently been brought into the market, and bids fair to throw all other Stoves into the shade. This Stove took the first premium at the State Fair held in Harrisburg last fall. Among its peculiar merits are the large Oven and Flues, and general simplicity, not being encumbered with unnecessary appendages, which in many stoves only enhance the cost without being of practical use. For beauty of design, quality of material, and general excellence, it cannot be excelled. The price is lower than any other first-class Cook Stove in market, and yet is warranted to cook and bake equal to the best. The Excelsior Penn Cook can be seen at the Wareroom of Col. C. H. Buehler, on Carlisle street, Gettysburg, who is the Agent for this place. Call and see it. tf

C. C. C. C.—Norris just from the city with the largest and cheapest stock of goods in the county—all kinds of Men's and Boys' wear, Straw Hats of every description, and light and dark colored Fur and Wool Hats, in endless variety and as cheap as before the war; also Summer Clothing of all kinds, and cut in the latest style. Young gents wanting a good cheap Fashionable Suit, and of good material, can save TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT by getting it from Norris, at Arnold's old corner. tf

Attention, Farmers.—Try the celebrated Patent Elastic Rubber-lined Collars, Saddles and Pads. Warranted to prevent horses from galling and to heal up work horses already galled, if properly fitted, and sore necks and backs, if kept clean with cold water and Castile soap, or no pay. VALUABLE PROPERTY,
"OAKRIDGE,"
AT PRIVATE SALE.

THIS very desirable property is now offered at Private Sale, by the undersigned, Executrix of Elias Shultz, deceased. It is situated entirely within the borough limits of Gettysburg, on the commanding ridge immediately west of the town, and embraces about 5 acres in a BEAUTIFUL GROVE of stately White Oak and Hickories. The buildings consist of a spacious, comfortable and attractive BRICK DWELLING HOUSE, two stories, having 12 apartments exclusive of large halls. In the rear is a Brick Kitchen, with other necessary buildings—the whole convenient and in good taste. The parlors and chambers are all large, airy, and there are closets throughout the whole house. There is an excellent cellar under the main building, with a spring in it; a well of first-rate water and two large brick cisterns near. There is also a FRAME COTTAGE on the premises, having 5 rooms, besides basement. This was originally erected for SCHOOL purposes, and is admirably calculated therefor.

9 ACRES AND 12 PERCHES OF LAND,

There is an excellent Frame Barn, with lower floor and mows and root cellars, and other out buildings on the tract.

Large Vegetable and Fruit Gardens, and an Orchard, add no little to the value of the property. The fruit embraces apples, peaches, pears, cherries, plums, &c., the trees in full bearing condition; whilst there are grapes of different varieties, raspberries, strawberries, and everything else in the small fruit line. The Flower Garden is a splendid one, filled with the choicest flowers and shrubs. The land throughout is in good condition.

The location of "Oakridge" is one of rare beauty. With the Town, the Cemetery, the Railroad, the ridges, Culp's Hill and Round Top, for views in front, and Katalysine Springs near, on the west, and the South Mountain in the distance, it occupies the very heart of a most picturesque region.

The buildings were erected by Prof. Herman Haupt, for his "Oakridge" Schools, regardless of cost, comfort and convenience only having been considered.

Persons wishing to view the property and learn terms, are requested to call on the Executrix, residing thereon, or on her Attorney, E. B. Buehler, Esq., Gettysburg.

BE WISE

WHILE wisdom will benefit you; be not always controlled by your incredulity. Hundreds have sought relief from the horrors of Dyspepsia through the medium of DEMPFEL'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC STOMACH BITTERS and found it. Why should you suffer when this admirable stomachic has cured many similar cases—why do you doubt, while others believe and are cured? Delay in this matter is both dangerous and unprofitable, your health, happiness, and business suffers, while constant neglect is frequently followed by serious and uncontrollable results. DEMPFEL'S BITTERS are equally useful in the numerous difficulties attending Indigestion; as BILIOUSNESS, CONSTIPATION, &c., while for FEVER and AGUE, and other disorders proceeding from MIASMATA, it is the only reliable preventive and remedy known.

MOTHERS! Mrs. Read's Infant Reliever cures Summer Complaint, Diarrhea, Colic, &c., and is indispensable in the nursery during the teething period; it relieves pain, allays inflammation, regulates the bowels, and promotes natural sleep.

BE IT ORDAINED, That the Carlisle road, from the present northern terminus of Carlisle street, extending north to the Borough limits on said road, be, and the same is hereby ordained to be widened and opened of the width of sixty-six (66) feet, by adding to the same so much of the lands on either side thereof as may be necessary for that purpose, and so that the centre of the same be in a direct line with the centre of said street north of the Public Square.

BE IT ORDAINED, That the street which intersects Carlisle street immediately north of the grounds belonging to Stevens Hall, and extending from the Harrisburg road to Black's turnpike, shall hereafter be called and known by the name of Stevens street, and that the width of said street shall be fifty (50) feet.

RESOLUTIONS:

RESOLVED, That the Lot-holders on each side of Carlisle street from North street to Stevens street, also those on each side of Washington street from North street to Pine street, be notified to make Brick Pavements, those on Carlisle street of the width of not less than seven (7) feet, and those on Washington street of the width of not less than six (6) feet. If said pavements are not made within the time specified by law (30 days) the Council will proceed to have the same done, and collect the cost of the work and materials, with twenty per cent. advance thereon, as provided by law.

RESOLVED, That Carlisle street opposite the southwest corner of Prof. Baugher's house be cut down the depth of two (2) feet below the surface, and that the street be made of a regular grade from thence to Stevens Hall.

OF THE
VITALITY OF THE STOMACH,

Prepared from Pure Vegetable Materials.

PURE TONICS AND THE MOST PLEASANT AROMATICS.

ON the 9th of July, 1869, the firm existing between BUSBEY & BRADY was dissolved. J. BUSBEY, the Inventor, being now Sole Proprietor of the GREAT INVIGORATOR, &c., thus informs his friends and the public generally that he continues the manufacture of the said BITTERS, wholesale and retail, at the same place, where their orders will as thankfully received and punctually attended to.

This invaluable Remedy for Dyspepsia and General Debility of the system is offered to the public, after a fair trial of its merits, with entire confidence that it will command their approval. It has been submitted, with the materials which compose it, to practicing Physicians, among others to Dr. M. D. G. PFEIFFER, one of our oldest and most eminent Physicians, residing at New Oxford, who, after examination, pronounced it a Remedy which would not fail to show its salutary effects, when properly administered, in cases of Dyspepsia, springing from old age and debilitating effects of previous disease, inward disease weakening, and at last destroying the nervous power of the stomach itself and therefore entitling it to be emphatically called "The Great Invigorator."

Dr. W. J. McCLURE, another prominent Physician of New Oxford, thus gives his opinion:

NEW OXFORD, Dec. 26, 1868.
MR. JOHN BUSBEY, Dear Sir: At your request I have examined "The Great Invigorator," prepared by you, and the formula from which it is prepared. It is composed of some of the most powerful vegetable tonics and most pleasant aromatics known to our profession, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it in chronic cases of Dyspepsia, and in all cases of Indigestion resulting from debility of the Stomach. I believe that, if properly used, it will be of incalculable benefit to the suffering of our race. I subscribe myself, yours, very respectfully,
W. J. McCLURE, M. D.

FORNEY'S

Horse & Cattle Powder.

This Preparation has become a great favorite with the people of Adams county, well known by its effects on the broken down and low spirited horse, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines. It is a sure preventive of all diseases. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite, gives a smooth and glossy skin, and transforms the skeleton into a fine looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk and makes the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of swine the article acts as a specific. By putting from a spoonful to half a paper in a barrel of swill, the diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. By timely use a certain preventive for Cholera. Price 25 cents per paper, 5 for $1.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of Premiums, being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insured as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complication and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends, and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the INCOME PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives, or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

A PACIFIC RAILWAY
GOLD LOAN.

WE beg leave to announce that we have accepted the agency of the Kansas Pacific Railway Company

For the sale of its

NEW SEVEN PER CENT. THIRTY YEAR GOLD LOAN, FREE FROM TAX.

This Loan amounts to $6,500,000,

First Mortgage Land Grant and Sinking Fund Bonds, secured upon the extension of the Railway from near Sheridan, in Kansas, to Denver, Colorado, a distance of 237 miles, of which 12 miles are completed, and the rest is under construction. It is also a Mortgage upon the Road, the Rolling Stock and Franchise of this first-class Railway, besides now running through the State of Kansas,

And in Successful Operation for 437 Miles west of the Missouri River, and earning already enough to meet all of its expenses and existing obligations, besides

More than the Interest upon this New Loan.

In addition to this the Bonds are also secured by a first mortgage of the

GOVERNMENT LAND GRANT OF THREE MILLION ACRES,

extending in alternate sections on either side of the track, from the 394th mile post in Kansas to Denver. The proceeds of the sale of these lands are to be invested by the Trustees in the 7 per cent. Bonds themselves up to 120 or in U. S. Bonds, as A Sinking Fund for the Redemption of the Bonds.

The Lands embrace some of the finest portions of the magnificent Territory of Colorado, including a coal field and pinery. The Company holds as an asset another tract of and although not pledged as a security for this Loan, their possession adds largely to the Company's wealth and credit. We estimate the Value of the Company's Property, covered by this Mortgage, at $23,000,000 over and above the Loan in money $6,500,000.

The Bonds have

THIRTY YEARS TO RUN,

from May 1, 1869, and will pay

Seven Per Cent. Interest in Gold, semi-annually, on May 1 and Nov. 1, and are

Free from Government Taxation, the Company paying the tax.

The principal of the Loan is made payable in Gold, in the City of New York, but each coupon will be at option of the holder, without notice, at the following rates.

Payable in Frankfort, London or New York,

On $1,000 Bond in New York $35 gold each half year.
On $1,000 Bond in London £7 5s. 10d. each half year.
On $1,000 Bond in Frankfort 87 fl. 30 kr., each half year.

The Agents of the Loan, before accepting the trust, had the condition of the Road, and the country through which it runs, carefully examined. They are happy to give the Loan an emphatic endorsement as a

FIRST-CLASS INVESTMENT,

In every respect perfectly safe, and in some essentials even Better than Government Securities.

The Bonds will be sold for the present at 96, and Accrued Interest, both in Currency, the Agents reserving the right to advance the rate.

The attention of Investors is invited to these well-secured bonds, which we recommend as one of the most profitable investments in the market.

Gold and Government Securities taken in payment at their market value, without commissions.

ELEVEN YEARS

Of Experience with a constantly increasing demand for Roback's Medicines is sufficient acknowledgment of their intrinsic merit, and places them in the very first in rank for curing the diseases for which they are recommended. Sold by all Druggists.

COSTIVENESS,

Or, Constipation of the Bowels, should always receive prompt attention, as it predisposes the system to disease. The timely use of such valuable cathartic remedy as Roback's Blood Pills has saved much sickness, disease and death, and many persons to-day, are indebted to these pills alone for their very existence, as the certificates in our possession will attest.

DROPSY,

And Dropsical Swellings, are always relieved and often permanently cured by the alterative effect which the timely use of Roback's Blood Purifier, when taken in conjunction with Roback's Blood Pills, is sure to produce.

DINNER PILLS.

All persons of bilious habits, after eating or drinking too freely, will find great relief in the use of Dr. Roback's Blood Pills; they aid digestion by stimulating the stomach, thus avoiding the pain, nausea, sour eructations, &c., which follow from eating too heartily.

ERYSIPELAS

Often arises from morbid condition of the entire system, and no better remedies can be found than Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills.

CONVALESCENTS,

Or persons recovering from Fevers or any of the malignant forms of disease, will find Roback's Stomach Bitters invaluable as a tonic and stimulant for removing all the prostrating effects which follow disease; it supplies the great want so long felt for a safe and reliable tonic and appetizer.

LIVER PILLS

Are Pills that have a direct and powerful action on the liver, and relieve any inactivity or congested state of that all important organ upon which depends the whole process of digestion. The importance, then, of procuring a Pill that shall have such direct action without the ill effects of mercury, is manifest to every one; such Pills are Roback's Blood Pills; they are warranted purely vegetable, and can with certainty be relied upon, and are safe at all times.

MELANCHOLY

Is one of the many disorders of the nervous system, arising from a low state of the constitutional health or severe prostration after long continued sickness, and requires invigorating remedies like Roback's Stomach Bitters to restore the nerves to their natural vitality.

WHO SELLS THEM?

The Agents for the sale of Roback's Blood Pills, Stomach Bitters and Blood Purifier are A. D. BUEHLER and J. M. HUBER, Gettysburg, Pa.

Miscellaneous Articles.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and everything that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit, although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

Rules and Regulations.

All Articles and Animals for Exhibition must be properly entered at the Business Office. The Grounds and Buildings will be opened on Monday, the 27th of September, to receive them; and trusty persons employed by the Society will assign them places and guard the grounds. Articles shipped beforehand will be properly cared for.

No entry for competition will be made after Tuesday; nor can anything entered be removed from the grounds till the close of the Fair, without permission of the President.

The Judges are requested to present themselves at the Business Office, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, and to report their awards to the Secretary before 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday.

Articles and Animals can only be entered to compete in one class, and no one can have two premiums awarded to it.

During the exhibition of horses, no person, excepting those having charge of the stock, Judges and officers attending to their duties, will, under any pretence or excuse, be admitted within the ring.

Hay, straw and water will be supplied free of charge, for all animals entered for premiums; and grain will be provided at the lowest cost price, for those who desire to purchase.

All articles and animals entered for exhibition free of charge.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be considered as donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or the article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will be furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number, and these cards must not be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangement, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals and articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person refusing will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Persons entering refreshment booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks. Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges, in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

In case any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry, or any other important matter, which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.

STILL AHEAD!

HOFFHEINS' REAPER AND MOWER,

One of the Greatest Machines of the Age,

IS superior to any other Machine now in use, and will excel any that will ever be introduced, having been thoroughly tried and given general satisfaction. I would now inform all those who intend purchasing Machines to call and examine for themselves. This Machine is noted particularly to excel all other machines in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability of work, in all kinds of grass and grain. It cuts lodged grain admirably, which is a great item in Machines to a farmer. It can be used as a hand rake as well as a self-raker. It cuts 5 feet 2 inches in grain; 4 feet 10 inches in grass; has a steel cutter bar, with wrought iron guards; it can be used as a Single Mower as well as a Combined Machine.

A full trial of the Machine can be had.

Also, SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, and the great and well-known BRANT RAKE, the best rakes ever introduced.

We would also call your attention to the IRON DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOUGH, wrought iron frame, very light and strong, steel shovels, easily adjusted to run shallow or deep, and is neatly and tastefully made.

Also, THE KELLER AND EXCELSIOR FANNING MILL, the old Eastborough Fan improved, for many years a great favorite among the farmers of Pennsylvania. It is large and strong, has two cockle screens, and warranted to work perfectly.

Also all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS always on hand.

Any person wishing to examine these machines can see them at the Battle-field Hotel, or at my residence, 3 miles from Gettysburg, between the Taneytown road and the Baltimore pike.

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

THIS medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which these organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK HEADACHE, &c. For CHILLS and FEVERS of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

A SERVANT FOR ALL.

Roth's Improvement for Opening, Closing and Latching Gates.

MAY be attached to any gate and operated from buggy, team or saddle, by one hand, in any desired direction from the gate—opened and closed from one point, at any distance from the gate. This improvement is simple and cheap, yet perfect and strong; will not be disarranged by the sagging of the gate, nor by the frost raising the posts; may be made at a country blacksmith's, and easily attached to a gate. The undersigned, having the Right for Adams county, will sell Township and Farm Rights of this improvement.

Also, ROTH & SHANE'S AMERICAN LEVER GATE, which will be found valuable and convenient to all who have gates to drive through—as they remain by their team, open, close and latch a gate without the necessity of getting in the wet or mud.

Maxims for Business Men.

WHEN a business man reaches the point where he thinks that he cannot spare any time to examine sources of financial and commercial information, he may safely conclude that his business is not well managed.

When a business man finds himself in a financial situation so embarrassing that he cannot afford to possess every publication that would throw more light upon his business transactions, he should not delay an hour, but arrange at once with an auctioneer to close out his stock to the highest bidder.

The above Maxims are taken from the columns of THE NEW YORK MERCANTILE JOURNAL which is the best as well as the largest mercantile newspaper published in the United States. Its market reviews and carefully revised list of jobber's prices, embracing almost every quotable article of merchandise, together with its judicious editorials, fill more than thirty-five (35) columns every week. The subscription price is only $5 00 per year, (less than 10 cents per week, and less than 1½ cents per day.) Parties desiring to possess themselves of this valuable publication, should address THE N. Y. MERCANTILE JOURNAL Co., 150 Pearl street, New York City.

respectfully inform the public that they are prepared to furnish Pianos of the following manufacture or of any other make that may be preferred:

Albright, Reikes & Schmidt, Chickering & Son, Bradbury, Knabe & Son, Gale & Son,

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR

ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These instruments stand unrivalled by anything found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞BRASS BANDS supplied with Instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.

A WORD TO THE WISE!

HIGHLY IMPORTANT

TO FARMERS!

GENTLEMEN, I have, after long study and a series of experiments, found that the soil of our county requires something quick, active and durable; and hearing of

F. C. RENNER'S

and it having been thoroughly tried by different farmers in the county, and found to surpass all others on all kinds of soil, and being much cheaper, I have purchased the Right for Adams county, and am prepared to FURNISH THE FERTILIZER in any quantity. I will deliver to any town or village in the county, any amount over a ton.

RENNER'S CHEMICAL FERTILIZER cannot be surpassed for its wonderful effects on all kinds of Grain, and at the same time it is one of the cheapest now in use or in market. I manufacture it for sale at $50 per ton without bags, or $55 in bags. This Fertilizer is composed of the best fertilizing chemicals that can be had. I use no oil of vitriol; it does not contain any ammonia, therefore I do not use it. Neither do I use lime nor ashes.

The Object of the Chemical Fertilizer is to introduce a fertilizer that will last for a series of crops, and therefore invite farmers and the public generally to give it a trial on all kinds of Grains and Vegetables.

CAUTION.

I hereby give notice that Farm Rights hereafter sold, unless signed by me, are infringements on my Right, and will be prosecuted and dealt with according to law, from which there is no appeal.

All orders must promptly. Address

MORO PHILLIPS'

GENUINE IMPROVED

SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

STANDARD GUARANTEED.

For Sale at Manufacturer's Depots,

No. 27 North Front St., Philadelphia.

AND

No. 95 South St., Baltimore.

And by Dealers in general throughout the Country.

THE SOMBRERO GUANO of which MORO PHILLIPS' PHOSPHATE is and always has been manufactured, and of which he has sole control for the United States, contains fifty per cent. more Bone Phosphate than Raw Bone, therefore it is more durable.

A large percentage is Soluble, and will immediately yield its nourishment.

The Ammonia it contains is pure and ready to yield its value, not animal matter, capable of yielding its ammonia after decomposition in the soil.

No time is spared in its manufacture to render it the most valuable Super-Phosphate and Crop Producer in the market.

Eight years' experience has proved to the farmer that it is durable and can always be relied on as uniform in quality; and the numerous unsolicited testimonials continually received of its use in competition with other Fertilizers, fully attest that it has not been excelled.

Price $56 per Ton of 2,000 lbs. Discount to Dealers.

RAW BONE

Super Phosphate of Lime.

STANDARD GUARANTEED.

We offer to Farmers, the present fall season, BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME as being highly improved.

BAUGH'S RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE is, as its name indicates, prepared by dissolving Raw Bones in Oil of Vitriol, that is, Bones that have not been deprived of their organic matter—the grease and glue—by burning or baking. It, therefore, presents to the use of the farmer all the valuable properties of Raw Bones in a highly concentrated form, rendering it at once quick in action and very permanent.

☞Farmers are recommended to purchase of the dealer located in their neighborhood. In sections where no dealer is yet established, the Phosphate may be procured directly from the undersigned.

FAHRNEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER,

Or PANACEA.

THIS well known and popular medicine was formerly put up in packages by Dr. Fahrney, near Boonsboro', Md., but is now put up in a liquid form, and is highly commended for all Chronic or long standing Diseases. Hundreds of testimonials could be given, but the following will suffice:

"Dr. P. Fahrney's Blood Searcher or Panacea," is a medicine that we can recommend to those who are afflicted, having used it in our own family and furnished our friends with the article; we can, therefore, from experience say that it is a medicine possessing rare medicinal properties. Being a mild purgative, it is well to keep it always in the family where there are children or those subject to colds or other sickness. It is compounded from medicinal Roots, Leaves, Barks, Seeds and Berries, which are said to be entirely free from poison. We are personally acquainted with the proprietor, who was our family Physician for several years, and we were at one time raised from a bed of affliction under his judicious treatment.—Christian Family Companion.

FAHRNEY'S BLOOD SEARCHER. From our personal acquaintance with Dr. P. Fahrney, and from the reputation of the above named medicine in the community where he lives, we can cheerfully recommend it to a fair trial to all who may need a PANACEA for the physical maladies of mortality until the great PANACEA for all diseases shall be found in the leaves of the tree of life.—Prophetic Watchman.

Sold by Tolman, Crosby & Co., Wholesale Druggists, Chicago, Ill., and by B. A. Fahnestock's Son & Co., Pittsburg, Pa.

Also by A. D. BUEHLER, Gettysburg, Dr. JAMES CRESS, Littlestown, and SHIELDS & MUSSELMAN, Fairfield, Adams county, and by Storekeepers and Druggists generally.

LONDON BLOOD PANACEA

WILL DO IT.

IT cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Scrofula, Erysipelas, Fluttering or Palpitation at the Heart, Dropsy, Gravel, and all Kidney Complaints, Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all diseases arising from an impure state of the Blood. By its use the impure dark colored Blood will be changed to the bright red limpid liquid of Life. And the broken down and debilitated either Male or Female will be made strong, robust and hearty.

As a medicine for Female Complaints it has no equal.

LADIES.

Use a bottle or two of LONDON BLOOD PANACEA each year, and your complexion will be pure, rendering useless the miserable cosmetics of the day.

BEAUTY,

Sparkling Eyes, Buoyant Spirits, Ruby Cheeks and a Beautiful Complexion will result from its use.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine joys, is derived from its cures, many of wh are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases Scrofulous disease, where the system seem saturated with corruption, have been puri and cured by it. Scrofulous affections disorders, which were aggravated by the scr ulous contamination until they were painf ly afflicting, have been radically cured in s great numbers in almost every section of country, that the public scarcely need to informed of its virtues or uses.
Scrofulous poison is one of the most destr tive enemies of our race. Often, this uns and unfelt tenant of the organism undermi the constitution, and invites the attack of feebling or fatal diseases, without excitin suspicion of its presence. Again, it seem breed infection throughout the body, and th on some favorable occasion, rapidly deve into one or other of its hideous forms, eit on the surface or among the vitals. In latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposi in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part the body. Hence the occasional use of a bo of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even w no active symptoms of disease appear. P sons afflicted with the following complai

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Disea are cured by it, though a long time is requ for subduing these obstinate maladies by a medicine. But long continued use of t medicine will cure the complaint. Leuc
